

Dear Dear Eulie.

You rushed off so quickly after the pictures were taken that I could not bid you good bye. Perhaps it was just so for tis with a very lonely feeling in my heart that I let you go. Good bye then dear it has been a pleasure for me to know you and though I suppose we will never meet again yet I hope you may never entirely forget your earnest admirer.

Write sometimes, won't you
Farewell dear - a last farewell
