This is just a note to remind you of my thoughts every minute of your absence and I have only hope I may find great success way to write your thoughts thru all any way. No doubt care

CENTRAL
CLUB

1892

With open arms to the following members.
 1. Diverse English poetry from Shelley to Browning in the light of the following quotation: "The great order of the members shall be the order of the members of the club."

August

little change has done been lost of good. He seems well & his excellent spirit. He & David don't see watching a ball game the afternoon at the schoolhouse grounds tonight we expect to see the school. I hope we will enjoy it more than we did. The play they gave last year. He has had two weeks wonderful days stress, it is only for your sake that I care at all, for of course it would be discouraging after having worked so hard to put in every one of them. But when much of you do your best at all very today can do. So don't worry.

 Father & I are having work a new time & the
