

WITH COMPLIMENTS OF
BATES, REED & COOLEY,
343, 345 & 347 BROADWAY, NEW YORK

Inventory 5

DRESS GOODS.

BATES, REED & COOLEY.

Sept. 14, 1883.

6 towels. 6. Table Napkins.

11 - 2 sets Flannel Underwear. 2 gauze Wrappers.

7 pr. Drawers. 6 Under Waists. 5 nighty Gowns.

2 Aprons. 2 Flannel Skirts. 4 White Skirts.

2 pr. Corsets. 5 pr. Woolen Hose.

2 pr. Cotton. 2 Cloth Skirts.

3 pr. Shoes. 1 pr. Slippers.

1 Umbrells. 2 Hats, 1 felt, one Straw; 1 velvet Hat; 1 Black velvet Cap; 1 Gossamer; 1 Fall Wrap. 1 Winter sacque; 1
Beaver New Market.

6 DRESS GOODS

BATES, REED & COOLEY

Dresses.

1 Black Cashmere

Brown Lady's Cloth,

Blue Velvet and Silk.

Blue Jersey Cloth dress.

Olive Brown Lady's Cloth.

Red Wrapper.

Green Silk.

Electric Blue Cloth dress.

Ecru Bunting Polonaise.

Blue Cambric.

White Muslin.

Blue Flannel Dress.

Diary. 1883. 9

DRESS GOODS

BATES, REED & COOLEY.

Sept. 15 Left Ogdensburg at 9 o'clock by U. and B.L.R.R. Mrs. Fulton, Hattie and Allie, and Hattie and our boys went over to see us off. Had very pleasant journey and arrived at N. Y. at 10 P.M. Hattie, Henry, and Rozelle met us at the depot.

Sept. 16. Wrote a letter home. Trunk arrived at noon. Mr. Ed. Frank came to dinner and spent the rest of the day. In the afternoon made a very pleasant call at Cousin Hanna's.

Kate and her husband spent the evening, and later, we went to the Restaurant. Re tired about twelve.

10 DRESS GOODS.

BATES, REED & COOLEY.

Sept. 17..Cousin Hattie and I went down town, bought tickets for theatre, and did some shopping. Reached home in time for lunch. Received a Journal from home containing a notice of my departure, which I did not like. In the evening, Hattie, Henry, and I saw Lawrence Barrett at the Star Theatre (corner Broadway and 13th St.) in Francesca Da Rimini. It was grand and I enjoyed it immensely. It rained a little all evening, but not hard.

SILK GOODS. 11

BATES, REED & COOLEY.

Sept. 18. Hattie, Zell, and I spent the morning at Central Park. Met Aunt Bessie on the way. Hattie and I went to Kate's, 104 E. 90th St.,and stayed to dinner. In the evening Kate and Mr. K. took us three girls down to see the Brooklyn Bridge; and from there across on the Ferry to Hoboken to see some of his relatives who were to leave on a steamer for Europe next morning. Met a great many of his family. Stopped at an oyster restaurant coming back, and reached home very tired at 12.

12 SILK GOODS.

BATES, REED & COOLEY.

Sept. 19. First day at Vassar. Expected to leave N. Y. at 9 A. M. but on account of a change found we must wait until 10:30. Hattie left us and went down town. Papa and I went to Arnold Constable & Co., where a gentleman showed us all around. Can't think of his name. Returned to the depot in time for our train. A young lady sat with me part of the time, who was on her way from Brooklyn to "St. Agnes" Albany. Name, Miss Gill, very pleasant. Hope to meet her again.

SILK GOODS. 13

BATES, REED & COOLEY.

Reached Poughkeepsie about 12:40, and took lunch at the waiting room. Took the street car on Main St. which brought us directly to the College gates. Rang the bell at the front door, and were ushered into the parlor. First girl I spoke to was Miss Belle Ward. After waiting some time, was taken to be interviewed by Miss Finch. Regents preliminary Certificate accepted; but cards, n. g. Too bad. First examined in U. S. History, next in Rhetoric. Passed in both. Supper at six. After finishing exam, was assigned room 118, a

14 SILK GOODS

BATES, REED & COOLEY.

4th corridor. Papa then took leave for N. Y. Very good supper, apple sauce to be sure. After tea, Miss Hillyer, a sweet girl from Topeka, Kan. invited several of us "new girls" up to her room, and was very kind. As neither her room mates had arrived, she asked Miss Lyon and myself to stay with her, which we were glad to do. Was almost bitten up with mosquitoes and have not fully recovered yet.

Sept. 20. Arose at 7. Took breakfast at 7:45. Made my bed. Took long examination in Latin Gram. and Caesar, and in French.

SILK GOODS. 15

BATES, REED & COOLEY.

Passed in both. Dinner at one. Examined in Algebra, and had short interview with Miss Hinkel, German teacher. Decided to continue my French for a while yet. Supper at six. Miss Ward spent part of the evening in my room. Room mate, Miss Shields arrived about nine o'clock. Very sweet pleasant girl. Retired at ten.

Sept. 21. Arose at 7. Breakfasted at 7:45. Spent the morning on an examination in Geometry. Real hard, but passed. Went to the President's Office, where Miss Finch arranged my classes. Dinner at one. Did some un packing. Wrote a long letter home. Sent to Pokeepsie, by Miss Goldberg for a yard of calico, and partly made a wash bag. Supped at six. Chapel at 6:30. Made and received calls during evening. Retired at ten, as usual.

16 SILK GOODS

BATES, REED & COOLEY

Sept. 22. Arose, breakfasted, and made my bed as usual. First gathering of clothes for the Laundry. Read quite a long prayer. Dined at one. Spent the afternoon in my room, reading and talking to Miss Shields. Supper at six. Chapel at 6:30. Evening, calls. Retire at 10.

RIBBONS AND DRESS TRIMMINGS.

BATES, REED & COOLEY.

Sept. 23. Arose at 7:45, breakfast bell. Late, but descended at 8:30. Made my bed, wrote two letters, then dressed and went to Chapel at 11. Visited reading room, and had dinner at one. Took a walk with Miss Wheeler. Called on Miss Ward. Supper at 6. Chapel at half past. Commenced Lucile in the P. M. Know I will like it. Miss Sweet, of Albany, spent the evening with me. Had a very pleasant literary conversation. She left at nine. I then undressed, and commenced my diary. Conse quently all inaccuracy is from lack of memory. Lights out at ten.

RIBBONS AND DRESS TRIMMINGS.

BATES, REED & COOLEY.

Sept. 24. Arose before seven. Went down to breakfast at 7:45. Then went to Chapel, when our classes were given out. French, 2nd per. Room H, at 9:15

Lesson assigned and class excused. Purchased Lessons in Idiomatic French for 50 cts.

Lexicologie for .30.

Mathematics, 4th per. room 4. at 10:45. Lesson in Geometry assigned. Bought Chauvenet's for $1.00. Took lunch at 12:15. Finished my bag in the morning.

RIBBONS AND DRESS TRIMMINGS.

BATES, REED & COOLEY.

Latin, 7th per. room B at 2:00.

Purchased Latin book for $1:00. Saved about $1.95 on books.

Studied a little this P. M. Had dinner at 5:15. Had just returned to my room, when I heard papa was in the parlor.

Hurried down, too delighted for anything. He stayed only about 20 minutes. Miss Goodsell came down by request for a few moments. Chapel at 6:30. Meeting of our corridor girls in Lecture room. Study hour from 7 to 8. Too tired to study very long. Will retire before ten. Good night.

RIBBONS AND DRESS TRIMMINGS.

BATES, REED & COOLEY.

Sept. 25. Arose about 7. Studied a little. Took breakfast at 7:45. Walked with Miss Mills for half an hour. Recited French from 9:15 until 10. Miss Johnson arrived. Like her very much. Went to Geom. at 10:45. Studied my Latin next period. Lunched at 12:15. Walked with Miss Van Zandt from one until half past. Studied until two. Recited "Cicero" until 2:45. Studied and talked until 5:10. Went to Lecture room to have our places at table assigned. Dinner until six.

RIBBONS AND DRESS TRIMMINGS.

BATES, REED & COOLEY.

Spent next half hour in my room with Misses Shields Johnson and Taggart. Chapel from 6:30 to 7. Studied until 8, and later. Lessons fair, first day. Room for improvement. Retired at ten, usual hour.

Sept 26. Arose at quarter of seven. Studied from 7 to 7:45. Took breakfast. Came up and made my bed. Studied until nine. Went to Office, and received a letter from Ray Fischel. French from 9:15 to 10. Studied next period. Recited Geom. 4th per. Walked half an hour with

RIBBONS AND DRESS TRIMMINGS.

BATES, REED & COOLEY.

Misses Ward and Bemis. Took lunch at 12:15. Studied until 2:00. Recited Cicero 4th period. Walked 1/2 hour with Miss Gilchrest. Studied until about 15 minutes to 5. Washed and prepared for dinner. Dined at 5:15. After dinner, went with Miss Tyler to her room, where I met Misses Poppenheim, Perrin, and Winne. Miss Lyon also came in. Spent very pleasant half hour. Chapel from 6:30 to 7. Spent evening in our room. Did not study. We fixed up a little. Miss Dowdall was here quite a while. Retired at ten.

WHITE GOODS.

BATES, REED & COOLEY.

Sept. 27. Arose at 7. Studied until 7:45. Breakfast until after 8. Made my bed. Studied and recited at usual periods. Lunched at 12:15. Walked from about 12:50 until 1:30. Bought a French literature for $1,40; also some fruit and candy. Went out on the Lake for over 1/2 an hour. Delightful now. Dinner at 5:15. Spent from 6 to 6:30 in Miss Hillyer's room. Met there Misses Wilkinson, ..., and Anderson. Played muggins.

WHITE GOODS.

BATES, REED & COOLEY.

Chapel from 6:30 until 7. Miss Heller came up to our room, and she Miss Johnson, and myself studied French together. Miss Shields and Miss Dowdall then came up with three mush melons. Picnic. Talked until half past nine. Received clothes from the wash today. Nicely done up. Retired at ten.

Sept. 28. Arose about seven. Studied French until 7:45. Ate breakfast. Studied French again with Misses Johnson & Heller until 9. Miss Shields then brought me up a letter

WHITE GOODS.

BATES, REED & COOLEY.

from dear Mamma and Hattie, including a note from Minn. Oh joy! oh rapture! It just cheered me up. Very interesting and newsy. Recited next period. Came up, made my bed, and studied Geom. Recited 4th period. Studied the remaining time, with the exception of lunch time, until 2. Latin period, after which Miss Ward and I spent 3/4 of an hour on the lake. Exceedingly pleasant. Came in for Miss Heartwell and Miss Rand, and took a short walk. Prepared laundry list, and then got ready for dinner. Dined at 5:15. Went with Miss Tyler to call on Mrs. De Saussure. Met there Misses DeS., Halliday, Hancock, and Dean. Chapel from 6:30 to 7. Called on Miss Harvey, Miss Leech, corridor teacher Miss Lyon, and some other girls. Missed some callers while I was gone. Took a bath at 9:20. Retired at ten.

WHITE GOODS.

BATES, REED & COOLEY.

Sept. 29. Arose, breakfasted and made bed as usual. Received a letter and P.O. or der for $5.00 from papa. Quite a surprise, a very agreeable one. Miss Heartwell, music teacher, invited me to walk to town; but I declined, as it is too far. Read prayer and other books. Spent a while in Miss Ward's room. Lunched at 12:15. Read "Lucile" most of the P.M. Walked an hour with Miss Ward and Miss Milk accompanied us part of the time. Misses Johnson and Shields went to P--, and bought sofa and curtains. Dined at 5:15. Chapel at 6:30. Spent evening in my room. Wrote New Year's letter home, and commenced a letter to Hattie. Misses Greene and Wallace called. Then Miss Dowdall came in and later Miss Hillyer and Miss Wilkinson. Latter knew Lou Ashley. Retired before ten. Sept. 30. Arose at 7:15. Breakfast at 7:45. Made my bed, and wrote a long letter home. Went to Chapel at 11. Spent from 12:30 until one in the reading room. Dinner at one. Walked from 2:10 to 2:40 with Miss Lyon. Came in and copied some French exercises, and then studied a while with Miss Johnson. Miss Dowdall, and Miss Taggart came in for quite a while. Wrote a letter to Hattie Fulton. Supper at six. Chapel at 6:30. Miss Briggs came up with Miss Shields and made a long call. Studied a while after she went, and then almost finished a long letter to Jennie Jones. Wrote in my diary, and retired at ten.

WHITE GOODS.

BATES, REED & COOLEY.

WHITE GOODS.

BATES, REED & COOLEY.

WHITE GOODS.

BATES, REED & COOLEY.

Oct. 1. Real cold day. Arose, break fasted, made my bed,

WHITE GOODS.

BATES, REED & COOLEY

studied, recited, lunched, and dined at usual hours, walked half an hour alone, and half an hour with Miss Bemis. Prayers as usual. Miss Heller was up here in the evening. Retired about ten.

Oct. 2. Happy New Year. Would like to be at home today. Break fast at 7:45. Excused from all lessons. Read a long prayer, and spent most of the morning in my room. Lunched at 12:15. Spent about an hour and a half in the reading room.

LINENS.

BATES, REED & COOLEY.

It rained very hard all day until about 3:30. Miss Hills and I took an hour's exercise. Went first to the orchard and got some apples, then walked around. Dinner at 5:15. Meeting of new students in Lecture Room at six. Addressed by Miss Goodsell. Chapel at 6:30. Immediately after, certain of the young ladies, myself included, were to go to the Lecture Room. Object, to see about Essays, &c. Are to meet Mondays and Thursdays, at ninth period. Miss

32 LINENS.

BATES, REED & COOLEY

Goldberg gave me a very pretty New Year's card. She also gave me a sheet of N. Y's paper, Saturday, on which I wrote home. She is from Jefferson, Texas. Miss J. and I studied French together for over an hour. Then Miss Goldberg came in and stayed until 9:35. Miss Patterson, Senior, was around to see about our getting collation tickets for Phil. day. Put our names down. Retired at ten.

Oct. 3. Arose before seven. studied a while; break fasted at 7:45;

LINENS.

BATES, REED & COOLEY.

studied and recited as usual. Lunched at 12:15. Took part of my exercise on the Lake; then walked the rest of the time. Made my first visit to the Museum with Miss Shields. Had dinner at 5:15. Misses Poppenheim, Winne, Tyler, and Lyon were here between dinner and Chapel time, when we all went to prayers. Miss Heller came up to study French. Wrote a letter to Minnie Church. (How glad I would be to see her.) Was much disappointed not to hear from home so far this week. Retired at ten.

LINENS.

BATES, REED & COOLEY.

Oct. 4. Arose and studied as usual, had breakfast at 7:45. Made my bed, studied and recited as usual. Had meals at regular hours. Took usual amount of exercise, partly on the Lake, and part walking. Went to the English class for first time. Must have an essay ready three weeks from today. This evening after dinner went to the parlor and danced with Miss Winne. A great many of the girls

LINENS.

BATES, REED & COOLEY.

go every evening, but chiefly old girls. Miss Heller came up again. Had seats assigned in Chapel last night and occupied them tonight for first time. Mine is in the 4th row from the front. Miss Patterson and Miss ... came to collect fee for Exoteric $1.00. I am now a member. Hope I will enjoy it. Miss Marchand was here for quite a while. Have not studied much to night. Will retire at ten. Am not satisfied with my diary; as it is composed of only the facts without comments; but I have so little time, and so many come into our room. Of course I am always glad to have them; but when they are here, I can not write. Just the same with my letters. Wish they would send me some papers and letters from home. Must write to them to do so. This is all for to night. Bon nuit.

LINENS.

BATES, REED & COOLEY.

Oct. 5. Arose at a quarter of seven; studied a little; had breakfast at 7:45;

WOOLENS.

BATES, REED & COOLEY.

Made my bed; studied until 9; went down to the Office; "still not letter from home;" recited French until 10; studied then recited Geometry until 11:30. Commenced 6th book to day. Studied Latin until 12. Lunched at 12:15. Wrote a postal to papa. Walked 1/4 hour. Came in and studied Cicero. Miss Dowdall was here most of that period. Recited C. at usual time; after which started out to walk alone; met Miss Bemis, and we were out

WOOLENS.

BATES, REED & COOLEY.

until four. Went over to the Tennis grounds and met Misses Dudley, Krauss (?), & Botsford. On my return, filled out my laundry list. Studied a little; then dressed for dinner. Dined at 5:15. Made a very short call on Misses Knight and Motley. Misses Jones and Fox came in and stayed a while. Chapel at 6:30; after which we called on Misses Mills and Colburn. Did not make any more calls, as many were out. Miss Shields and I went down to the store and bought some fruit, crackers, and butter. Lunched until bedtime. Miss Shaw came in and stayed all night with Miss S. Retired at 10.

WOOLENS.

BATES, REED & COOLEY.

Oct. 6. Arose 7:15; breakfast at 7:45; made bed; went for mail; received three letters or rather six. Happy! Read and spent some time in the Library. Walked about fifteen minutes with Miss Van Zandt. Lunched at 12:20. Read in Lucile. Went down to Parlor J with Misses Jones and Johnson. Played on the piano for first time in Vassar College. Went walking with Miss Ward. Number of young gentlemen strolling around the grounds. Several of the girls were in our room. Cuttrains all up at last. Had dinner at usual time. Chapel also. Went to Exoteric with Misses J. S. & Mills. Danced and had refreshments. It was very pleasant. That is about all I can say of it. There is a little girl in college Miss Marshall of Nashville, who has attracted a good deal of attention by her rather pretty face, peculiar walk. A good many remarks are made about her, some pro, some con. I do not admire her, as to me there is rather a fast look about her. She was quite the belle last night. The Misses Halliday came up with us from Ex. and stayed until 9:30. Retired at 10.

WOOLENS.

BATES, REED & COOLEY.

WOOLENS.

BATES, REED & COOLEY.

Oct. 7. Arose about 7:15; took breakfast at 7:45; made bed; went to Bible class at 9; wrote to mamma and Hat. Chapel from 11 to 12:30. Walked till one; dinner till almost 2;

WOOLENS.

BATES, REED & COOLEY.

read a little; studied French an hour; dressed and made a call; had supper at six; Chapel at 6:30; called on Miss Hartwell, Misses Goldstines and Hillyer & Wilkinson. At nine, went to an organ concert in Chapel by Miss Finch. Music very fine. retired at ten.

Oct. 8. Arose at seven; studied; breakfast at 7:45; made bed; studied French until 9; received advertisement from P.-by mail; studied and recited Geometry as usual after French class; studied Cicero until 12; lunch at 12:15; went out at one and studied Latin with Miss Ward; recited from 2 until 2:45; rowed on the lake about 20 minutes; came in and studied until five; dinner at 5:15; note to Uncle Eli; Chapel at 6:30. Studied from 7 to 8. Had corridor meeting before 7; Miss Jones came up and stayed till almost nine; Miss Leech came to see me about changing place at table; am real sorry to leave Miss Hartwell. Took bath about 9:20. Retired at ten.

FLANNELS.

BATES, REED & COOLEY.

Oct. 9. Arose a little before 7;

FLANNELS.

BATES, REED & COOLEY.

day as usual; lunched at 12:15; spent about an hour on the Lake in the P. M.; was excused by Miss Goodsell for Thursday; had dinner at 5:15; made a call on Miss Leech; Chapel at 6:30; read a little in Lucile; had a very pleasant call on Miss Braislin. She is so kind and lovely. Met Miss Acker in her room. Came back to my room, and retired about 10.

Oct. 11. It is Yom Kippur, and I have fasted all day. Arose after eight; received a letter from home; said a prayer for two hours; walked half an hour with Misses Shields and (Johnson) Greene; read another prayer in the afternoon; read other matter; walked an hour with the Misses Goldstine; dined at 5:15, pretty hungry. Missed our usual Yom Kippur supper. After chapel came up and studied till after eight. Went over to Music Hall, and bought some candy. Returned and studied until almost 10:30. Retired.

Oct. 12. Arose about 7; had breakfast at 7:45; made bed; studied and recited French and Geometry as usual; prepared Cicero; lunched at 12:15; had an examination in C; walked an hour, part of the time in the rain; came in and found Miss Marchand here; prepared laundry list; dressed for dinner; dined at 5:15; spent half an hour in reading room looking over the Hamilton Lib. Became quite interested, as I found frequent mention of John D's name; also Dr. Miller's and Mr. Morey's. Latter seems to be studying law. Chapel at 6:30; called on girls in parlor 64; then on Miss Shulze, not at home; on Miss Hartwell, where I met Miss Farnham; on Dr. Allen with some of the girls; then came home; read some; Misses Shaw and Harvey came in; retired about ten.

Oct. 13. Arose at seven; had breakfast at 7:15; made bed; got clothes ready for laundry; received a lovely letter from Hattie Fulton; read nearly all morning. went down to Miss Goldstine's room about 11:30; stayed till lunch, 12:15; received three papers from home; walked with Miss Rose G. from one to two; came in and read more or less until dinner time; had dinner at 5:15; called on Miss Goodsell for a little while before Chapel; prayers at 6:30; came up and began to get my French; Misses Taggart and Conkling came up to hear the story of the man said to have been in Miss Means' room. Hardly believe the story; but don't know. Misses S. and J. went down for some pickles; and we munched till bedtime; retired at ten.

Oct. 14. Arose at 7:20; had breakfast at 7:45; went to reading room to learn Bible lesson; came up and made bed; went to Bible class at nine. wrote a letter to Hattie Houston; dressed for Chapel; wore my white muslin as it was so warm; services at eleven; dinner at one; took exercise and found some chestnuts; came in and wrote to papa and mamma, Hattie, Jennie Meyer, and Ray Fischel. (Dined at 5:15) Had supper at six. No evening prayers; but instead some missionary lecture; did not attend; Misses Goldstine came up with me from supper and stayed until seven; tried to study a little, but could not. Miss Trude Jones stayed all evening. Retired at ten.

Oct. 15. Arose at 6:30; studied until breakfast, 7:45; made bed; studied and recited French and Geometry at usual periods; received a nice letter from Julius and James; had lunch at 12:15; studied and recited Latin Prose; went chestnutting with Miss Pomerine; came in and studied some until dinner time, 5:15; spent a short time in reading room; attended a short meeting of Exoteric, special. Not as much dignity as Kalamathian; Chapel at 6:30; studied till after eight; called on Miss Lyon; Miss Dean and " (meaning "Miss") Jones stayed in our room quite a while. Retired at ten. One thing I forgot. Subscribed for Vassar Misc. $2.00.

Oct. 16. Arose after seven; breakfast at 7:45; made bed; made professional call on Dr. Allen; no prescription yet, am to go again Friday, may be before. Studied and recited all lessons as usual. Received a most interesting letter from Jennie Jones. Lunched at 12:15; went to walk about three; studied until nearly five; "Miscellany " was brought by Miss Ewing; Dinner at 5:15; wrote part of a letter to Dora

Frank. Chapel at 6:30; attended lecture on art by Prof. Van Ingen from 7 to 8. Miss Heller came up to study French; but we talked most of the time; munched on crackers jam and pickles until bed time; retired at ten.

Oct. 17. Arose after seven; had breakfast at 7:45; studied and recited all day as usual; received a letter from my dear mamma; lunched at 12:15; walked from 3 to 4; went to see Miss Finch about taking Virgil; not yet decided; A number of teachers and pupils went to Newburgh to the celebration. Dined at 5:15; spent a while in reading room; Chapel at 6:30; Misses Kaufman Schreyer, and Marchand spent part of evening; studied and read until bed time. Retired at ten.

Oct. 18. Arose at seven; had breakfast at 7:45; studied and recited all day, as usual; lunched at 12:15; received a message to go to Miss Finch at her office hour; walked 1$ of an hour; went to Miss F's and was admitted to Virgil Class, on trial. Am to go to her again Nov. 1. Remained in V. Class but a few minutes; spent 3/4 of an hour on the lake with Miss Van Zandt; studied until 5; dinner at 5:15; wrote to mamma; Chapel at 6:30; studied from seven until nine; retired at 10.

Oct. 19. Arose at 7; had breakfast at 7:45; made bed; went to see Dr. Allen, who gave me some medicine which was effectual; studied and recited at usual periods; first recitation in Virgil; walked an hour; heard part of a lecture given in Chapel by a Pinte Indian woman in costume, very good; dinner at 5:20; dressed and went to Chapel; called on Misses Anderson, Cowles (French teacher), Ward, Abbott, and Goldstine; a number of the girls were in till bed time. Retired at ten.

Oct. 20. Arose 7:15; breakfasted at 7:45; spent a while in reading room; went to the Mail and received very interesting letter from Hattie; made bed; said prayer; read until 11:30; walked 1/2 hour; lunched at 12:15; walked another half hour; rained real hard; spent a while in library; read a little; girls came in and proposed a little spread for evening; buttered bread and prepared things; dressed for dinner; dined at 5:15; went to chapel at 6:30; Exoteric in room D at 7:30; went with Misses Kauffman[sic] and Schreyer, and had reserved seat; large attendance; exercises consisted of a farce "Who's to win him." Very good indeed. Adjourned about 8:15. Misses March and Dean, Wychersham; Schreyer, and Kaufmann[sic] spent most of evening in our room. Served chocolate and sandwiches; pleasant time. Miss Leach came and spoke about girls not being in their rooms by the twenty five minutes bell; second time she has been here lately. Retired at ten +.

Oct. 21. Arose at 7:15; had breakfast at 7:45; studied Bible lesson; made bed; went to Bible class; dressed and went to Chapel; walked half an hour; dined at one; wrote long letter to Hattie; prepared my Latin Prose; had supper at six; no prayers this evening; wrote to Cousin Hat.; studied French a little, and commenced Essay; read a few minutes. Retired at 10.

Oct. 22. Arose at 6:45; studied a little; had breakfast at 7:45; studied and recited as usual; lunched at 12:15; received four papers from home, which I had no time to read till this evening; took an hours exercise; dined at 5:15; read papers; Chapel at 6:30; Studied French with Miss Heller from 7 until 8 P.M. Studied Latin rest of evening.

Some of the girls here nearly all the time. Retired at ten.

Oct. 23. Arose at 7:15; breakfasted at 7:45; made bed; studied and recited all day as usual. Received a letter from Hattie Honston; lunched at 12:15; returned my Virgil as Miss Kauffman lent me one; ... pens $1.30, consequently; took an hour's exercise; dined at 5:15; chapel at 6:30; studied till bed time. Nell Johnson had been sick all day and a great many have been in to see her. Time now to retire, 10.P.M.

Oct. 24. Arose about 7; breakfasted at 7:45; made bed; studied and recited all day as usual; lunched at 12:15; was asked to take part in Exoteric, but have not time now; have to study real hard with four studies; took an hour's exercise, part with Miss Ward; dinner at 5:15; chapel at 6:30; studied all evening. Went to see Miss Clark; excused till Monday for Essay; obtained permission from Miss Leach to keep light burning until twenty minutes past ten. Retired.

Oct. 25. Arose at 7:15; breakfasted at 7:45; made bed; studies and recitations at usual periods. Examination in Geometry, Book VI; not hard; English class met; another essay in three weeks; received ... papers from home; forgot to say that I received letters from Papa, Julie, and Dora yesterday. Lunched at 12:15; dined at 5:15; took hour's exercise during the day; darned a pair of stockings, and did a little sewing; chapel at 6:30; studied nearly all evening. Retired at 10.

Oct. 26. Arose about 7; had breakfast at 7:45; lessons as usual; began Book VII in Geometry; lunched and dined at usual time; walked an hour with Miss Mills; came in and made out wash list, and then dressed for dinner; spent some time in reading room; chapel at 6:30; did not make any calls; at eight went to chapel to hear a lecture on Greece, by a native; lasted two hours and was very interesting; illustrated by a stereopticon; took my bath at 10:15; retired about a quarter of eleven.

Oct. 27. Arose at 7:15; breakfasted at 7:45; made bed and prepared clothes for the laundry; received letters from Mamma and Heather; read "Through one Administration", by Mrs. Burnett, nearly all morning; lunched at 12:15; walked for an hour with Miss Tyler, and spent 1/2 hour in the museum. Miss Shields received a handsome brass plaque for our room. Misses Symonds and Hassan were here for a while. Dined at 5:15; chapel at 6:30; spent most of the evening on my essay. Retired at 10.

Oct. 28. Arose at 7:15; had breakfast at 7:45; made my bed; Bible class at nine; commenced a letter to Mamma and Papa; dressed and went to Chapel at 11; dined at one; walked half an hour with Miss Halleck; finished my letter and wrote to Heat. and Jule; studied French till after five; supper at six. Chapel at 6:30; called on Miss Heartwell; (out), Misses Hillyer, Wilkinson, and Hassan called. Studied some; talked to Misses Shields, Kauffman, and Schreyer. Miss K. has a decided mash on Lizzie, and is here nearly all the time. Have a miserable cold in my head. Retired at ten.

Oct. 29. Arose at seven; had breakfast at 7:45; made bed; studied and recited as usual; lunched at 12:15; received a Bible from home; it rained all day, so I did not go out; dined at 5:15; darned a pair of stockings; went to chapel at 6:30; corridor meeting afterward; studied till after eight; Miss Jones came up and we made some chocolate; Misses Goldstine and Marchand came in and stayed until twenty minutes to ten; took foot bath and retired at ten.

Oct. 30. Arose at 6:15; studied; breakfasted at 7:45; made bed; studied and recited as usual; lunched at 12:15; obtained missing clothes from laundry; received two papers from home; walked an hour; dined at 5:15; commenced letter to Hattie Fulton; chapel at 6:30; went to Miss Abbott's room with Miss Van Zandt to learn something about reading Virgil; studied good part of the evening; Misses Colburn and Milk called; retired at 10.

Oct. 31. Arose before 6:30; studied till 7:45; had breakfast; made bed; studied and recited as usual; lunched at 12:15; walked an hour; dined at 5:15; studied till 8, with exception of chapel time; invited Miss Kauffman, Schreyer, and Colburn in to celebrate Hallow E'en; first wrote names on slips of paper, put them in apples, and dived for them. My Apple had Mr. Coleman's name on it, one of Nell's Springfield fellows. next we had Neapolitan cream and cake, which we ordered from Smiths; climbed a sheet, played a few tricks; and altogether had a very nice time. Celebrated pretty well after all. Retired after eleven.

October gone; Thanksgiving will soon be here. Hurra!

Nov. 1. Arose at 6:30; studied a little; had breakfast at 7:45; studied and recited all day as usual; lunched at 12:15; received a letter from Minn. Church, dear girl any way, though she waited so long before writing; wonder when I will answer it. Had examination in Cicero today and yesterday. Went to see Miss Finch and expect to stay in Virgil. Miss Dewitt, singing teacher died here today, and Miss Goodsell called a meeting in Chapel at 1:15. First death in College, since I have been here. Very sad. Received oil painting, tabourine, and velvet cap from home. All very nice. Walked an hour. Dined at 5:15; chapel at 6:30; studied French, wrote a postal home; ate candy and cake; "talked"; and retired at ten.

Nov. 2. Arose about 7; had breakfast, lunch, and dinner at regular hours; studied and recited as usual; went to English class for twenty minutes; walked an hour; did not dress till after dinner; read my four papers which I received from home; chapel at 6:30; called with Misses Ward, and Lowe on Prof. Braishir, Misses Finch and Hillard; all out or engaged; sent card up to Miss Clark's room, as I knew she was out; took bath at 9:20; retired at ten.

Nov. 3. Nell and Lizzie left for New York a little after five; I arose at 7:15; said prayer for Sabbath; received a letter from Hattie; settled laundry bill; obtained some ... and screws from Mr. Wheeler for oil painting; went in to Miss Hartwell's for a few minutes, and she gave me permission to play on her piano in the afternoon; finished "Through one Administration", and like it very much; lunched at 12:20; walked an hour; practiced almost two hours at music hall; ...came up and bring my picture, which looks very nice indeed, and reminds me so much of home; dined at 5:15; spent time until chapel in reading room; chapel at 6:30; studied until about nine; Miss Poppenheim was here a while; girls returned about nine; retired at ten.

Nov. 4. Arose at 7:20; had breakfast at 7:45; went to Bible class at 9; wrote or rather finished letter to Hattie Fulton; went to chapel; walked half an hour; dined at 1:15; wrote to Hat. and James; studied my Virgil; went to organ concert by Miss Finch from 5:30 to 6: then had supper; chapel at 6:30; called on Misses Hillyer and Wilkinson; came back and studied French, nearly all evening. Miss Hartwell has very kindly offered me the use of her piano for every Saturday P. M. Lovely of her. Miss Heller came up for "Second Wife." Retired at 10.

Nov. 5. Arose at 7; had breakfast, dinner, and lunch at regular hours; most delightful day; received letter from Ray Fischel; walked half an hour, and spent the same length of time on the Lake; went to Reading room after dinner; chapel at 6:30; corridor meeting; studied all evening; took bath; retired about ten.

Nov. 6. Arose at 7; breakfasted at 7:45; studied and recited all day as usual; lunched at 12:15; received a lovely letter from Belle Howe, and an advertisement from town. Was so glad to get the former; took an hour's exercise in the P.M.; dined at 5:15 in the French room; like it very well for a change, and hope it will help me with my French; wrote a letter to Papa and Mamma; went to Chapel at 6:30; studied remainder of evening. Retired quite weary at 10.

Nov. 7. Arose at 7; decided change in the weather; quite "breezy"; had breakfast at 7:45; studies and classes as usual; lunch at 12:15; Miss Conant called with her parrot; Nell and Miss Heller went to town; took my hour's exercise; dined at 5:15; read in Reading Room until chapel at 6:30; studied all evening. If I were at home tonight I would no doubt be at the Opera House to see Mrs. Langtry in "She stoops to Conquer". Would like to have the pleasure; but what's the diff? What can't be, can't be. Will hear all about it. [sentence in French] Almost ten, time to retire. Bon nuit.

Nov. 8. Arose at 6:30; dressed and studied till breakfast time 7:45; studied and recited all day as usual; lunched at 12:15; received Catalogue of Eastman College; took an hour's exercise; dined at 5:15; spent remainder of evening as usual; retired at ten.

Nov. 9. Arose at 6:30; studied; had breakfast at 7:45; lessons as usual; lunch at 12:15; excused from exercise on account of rain; did some mending; patched my "first elbow"; not so badly either; Nell is trying to break me of say[sic] "I don't know", so much; dined at 5:15; read "Hamilton Lit." in reading room. Only one name in it to interest me this month; Dr. Caldwell is absent so Miss Goodsell filled his place; consequence, prayer longer than usual, which is by far too long; called on Miss Colburn, Mrs. De Saussure, Misses Heller, Jones, Goldstine, Winne and parlor mates; all out but Miss C. Came home and read "Christabel" and "Among the Hills"; took bath, and retired a little after 10.

Nov. 10. Arose at 7:15; had breakfast at 7:45; much disappointed to receive no mail; read a prayer; bought a hair pin; learnt a little of my French; kept Nell company while she worked; Lizzie had to go to Infirmary, on account of her eyes; but came back in afternoon; lunched at 12:15; received a circular from Eastman; Mr Hank from Springfield sent Nell a lovely basket of fruit; I spent a couple of hours in reading room, looking over the different college papers; walked an hour in the rain; practiced 3/4 of an hour on Miss Hartwell's piano in Music Hall; dined at 5:15; happened to ask Miss Brown in French room where her home is; she replied in Dansville; knows Ed. Money, his sister, and Miss Clara Whiteman Norman Marsh's "friend"; commenced talking English at a great rate; but Mademoiselle soon stopped up; told her we were excited at having found mutual acquaintances and could not speak of it in French; When we mentioned Bertha Holbrook, Miss Ellis from Antwerp, who sits next to me, asked if I knew her. Discovered she knows Bertha, Addis Whitney, Herb. Clarke, Alice Lawrence, and all the Gonv

... crowd. Chapel at 6:30; meeting of Exoteric at 7:30; very good. First on program, "Greece in Flames" a burning candle; second "Things to Adore"; key, padlock, &c.; next a recitation by Miss Symonds; Maud Muller illustrated; very good, indeed; Farce "Courtship under Difficulties", very short having but three characters, Misses Welden, Dunham, and Hannah Patterson; after meeting, wrote part of my essay; retired at ten.

Nov. 11. Arose at 7:20; had breakfast at 7:45; Bible Class at 9; finished essay; wrote letter to Hattie; dined at one; walked half an hour with Miss Ward; studied a while; at 3:30, went to Chapel; Pulpit occupied by Dr. Ferguson of the Five Points Mission, New York; there were with him fifteen of the Mission children, who sang very nicely, and also recited. One, especially, had a beautiful voice; copied my essay; had supper at 6; chapel at 6:30; commenced to study Virgil;

Miss Brown made a long call; studied a little more; and the Misses Goldstine called; retired at ten.

Nov. 12. Arose at 6:30; studied; breakfasted at 7:45; studies and recitations as usual; received letters from Cousin Hat. and Sister Hat.; lunched at 12:15; walked an hour; dined at 5:15; chapel at 6:30; Prof. Dwight in the pulpit; studied and read papers from home; retired, after bath, at ten.

Nov. 13. Arose at 6:30; had meals and recitations as usual; received letters from Mamma and Eleanor Couper; Nell had to go to Infirmary on account of a cold; so many sick; Lizzie has much trouble with her eyes; am very, very sorry and hope she will not have to go home. Walked an hour; wrote to Hattie Houston; chapel at 6:30; Prof. Drennan in Pulpit, and short prayer for a change; hope he will conduct the meetings while Dr. Caldwell is absent; studied till nine; retired at ten.

Nov. 14. Arose at 7:15; had meals and lessons as usual; Nell still in Infirmary;

Lizzie and Jean Kauffman sick all day; at least, inclined to be; took an hour's exercise; wrote to Mamma and Belle Howe; studied nearly all evening; retired at ten. Nothing new.

Nov. 15. Arose at seven; studied, recited, and had meals as usual; received letters from Hattie, Julie, Leo and James; needless to express my pleasure; lovely in Hat. to answer my letter so quick; walked an hour; had English class; another essay Dec. 6th; interview

Nov. 22nd in Miss Clark's room. Made short call on Miss Ward, it being her birthday; chapel at 6:30; studied some in the evening; Retired about ten.

Nov. 16. Arose about seven; had meals and lessons as usual; took exercise; chapel at 6:30; wrote letter to Hattie; Lizzie in N. Y. to see the Doctor. Misses Shulze, Rabe, and Nix called; Misses Jones spent the evening, made popcorn, and had good time generally; Lizzie returned about nine; can not study any more, and expects to go home soon; retired at ten.

Nov. 17. Arose at 7:20; practiced an hour; meals as usual; went to town in the afternoon with Lizzie; visited Smith's, and several other places. returned home very tired; lay down all evening; Misses Jones, Briggs, Forbes, and Maloney were here during evening; retired at 10.

Nov. 18. Arose at 7:15; had breakfast at 7:45; went to see Dr. Allen, as my throat felt a little sore. made me to to the Infirmary, and stay until Friday.

Nov. 19. Spent the day in bed at the Infirmary. Received a letter from Hattie Judson.

Nov. 20. Another day in bed. Letter from Jule; did not feel a bit sick; trouble with me, contagious sore throat.

Nov. 21. Allowed to get up today; received "Advance" from home; studied a little Latin; played games with Jean Kauffman who is also in Inf. and in same room.

Nov.22. Am one day ahead, but nothing of importance happened during preceding days, so no matter. Received while in Inf. a note from Nell, a rose from Miss Goodsell; a note and some flowers from the Misses Goldstine.

Nov. 23. Came out of the Infirmary; everybody very nice and glad to see me. Went to classes as usual; examination in Geometry at hand. retired at ten, after attending a meeting of Exoteric.

Nov. 24. Arose at 7:30; made long morning call on Miss Jones; called this P.M. on Miss Ward; borrowed her satchel; walked an hour with Miss Colburn; had interview with Miss Clark about my last essay; attended a Phil. play "Cricket on the Hearth", with the Misses Goldstine. It was very good indeed. Held in Music Hall. Large audience. Retired at ten.

Nov. 25. Arose at 7:30; breakfasted at 7:45; wrote to Cuz. Hat; went to Bible Class at 9; chapel at 11: dinner at 1; walked half an hour; Miss Heller brought me up my ... materials; supper at six; spent a little time in reading room; studied more or less all day and evening. Retired at 10.

Nov. 26. Arose at 7:15; took meals and recited as usual; received letter from Jule and check of $10 from Papa; did not go out on account of rain; commenced my banners; retired at ten.

Nov. 27. Arose at 6:30; meals and lessons as usual; received letters from Hat. & Hat. Fulton; took exercise; went down to Miss Heller's for a little while after dinner; this evening attended very fine piano recital by Miss Stevens, graduate of the class of '82, who has been in Europe some time. Retired at ten.

Nov. 28. Arose at seven; lessons all day; bought tickets to and from N.Y. Nearly all the girls went away on the P.M. train. Miss Howell and myself had a special street car. Met Hat. at the depot, and arrived in N.Y. at ten. Hat. was sick all the way down. Henny, Zelle, and Cousing Hat. met us at the depot.

Nov. 29. Thanksgiving Day. went over to Kate's in the morning. Found her sick with a cold. Stayed until twelve. Abe and Ed. came up after dinner and stayed all evening. Cousin Hattie from Scranton came in the afternoon. In the evening, we had music, and then all took a long walk. Had lunch after our return.

Nov.30. At 11:30, started for Hoboken to see Hattie off from Scranton; had lots of fun on the Ferry; spent some time on Broadway; walked from 14th St. up to 55th. Met Campanini on the street, also Jim Tallman and Turner. Spent the afternoon with PaulineSchloss; met there the Misses Davis, Meyer, Mayer, and several others. Did not go out in the evening.

Dec. 1. Went with grandma to Aunt Bessie's; thence to Pauline's with Zelle; then down town; saw the Masonic Temple on five; went to Simpson's and bought jersey; then to Huyler's; then home; received invitation to party Christmas Eve; returned to College on the 4

P.M. train; came out on the car with Miss Nassau; lent her 30 cents (in parenthesis); had lunch before retiring.

Dec. 2. Heard neither rising nor breakfast bell; went to Bible Class and Chapel. wrote home and to Aunt; walked with the Misses Goldstine; studied; called on Miss Hartwell in the evening.

Dec.3. Lessons as usual; first day of gymnastics; not assigned to any class yet; nothings particular happened, that I remember.

Dec. 4. Was measured and weighed for gyms. Weigh 140 lbs.; belong to 8 P.M. class; received letter from Belle and Mamma.

Dec. 5. Took part of my exam. in Geometry in the evening. Wrote and sent back my Jersey to Simpson's to have it exchanged. Only required to take half an hour's exercise now.

Dec.6. No lessons today; received postal from Hat. saying she would arrive at noon; met her at the depot; went to Smith's for lunch; spent afternoon in the College; Hat. did not feel well; dressed about 6:30; and went down at 7:30; had good seats in chapel; exercises as follows; playing by the orchestra, "Poet and Peasant"; prayer by Dr. Caldwell; address by Miss McMillan Pres. of Phil.; Singing by Miss B... of N.Y.; playing by Miss Stevens; announcement by Miss Loomis, the Marshall. Collation in dining room; promenading in corridor and parlor, beautifully decorated; dancing and singing by College Glee Club. Retired a little after eleven. Hat stayed with me and Miss Beach with Nell. Very pleasant evening.

Dec.8. Purchased some breakfast for Hat., as she could not go down. She concealed herself in the wardrobe while the maid did the room work. Received a letter and $5.00 from Jule. Went to depot with Hat., who left at 1:15; slept over an hour in the afternoon. Miss Brown called just before dinner and chapel in reading room. In the evening wrote letters to Mamma, Papa, boys, Dora and Ray. Got a bottle of mineral water from Dr. Allen. Retired at ten.

Dec. 9. Arose at 7:35; went to Bible Class and Chapel; Rev. Dr. Elmendorf of Po'keepsie occupied the pulpit; wrote to Hattie Fulton; walked half an hour; spent a long time in reading-room; Misses Jones and Walratty called; studied all evening.

Dec. 10. Lessons as usual; corridor meeting; took an exam. in Geometry in the evening; made out traveling list.

Dec. 11. Lessons and everything as usual; received a letter from Jennie Jones; gyms. every night at 8; walk only half an hour.

Dec. 12. No change from other days, only one day nearer vacation. Nell took my gold pin to town today to get it mended, walked with Miss Ward; she gave me an opportunity to trade ... with Hat. . This evening after gyms. went in to Miss Mill's room and stayed until 25 minute bell.

Dec. 13. Lessons harder than usual today, especially Latin; went down to Miss Heller's room between dinner and Chapel with my work; short lecture by Miss Goodsell, subject "Advice for Vacation"; Miss Van Zandt came down to study Latin after gyms. Retired at ten.

Dec. 14. Lessons difficult. Received letter and Check for $10 from Papa and Ma & letter from Hattie. Answered former. Walked an hour; in the evening called on Miss Hillyer and room-mates; went to Exoteric at 7:45; meeting rather dull; after exercises, treat and dancing; took bath, and retired.

Dec. 15. Had to report to Miss Goodsell, as I was marked absent from gyms. Thursday night by mistaken, made it all right. Received letter from Jule. Walked an hour very cold; trunk and hat arrived. Ticket agents came out with tickets, checks, &c.; made morning call on Misses Goldstine; wrote to Hattie Judson, Eleanor, Belle and Hat. in the evening. Well done n'est ce pas.

Dec. 16. Went to Bible Class and Chapel; wrote to Jule and Mamma; prepared my French and Virgil; walked half an hour; called on Miss Brown; did most of my packing.

Dec. 17. Lessons as usual; first day of snow; trunk all packed and ready to go. Took hour's exercise; sent off box with ... in.

Dec. 18. Lessons as usual until noon; left College at 12 M., Po'keepsie at 1:15. reached N. Y. at 3:45; two Hatties met me at the depot; did some shopping; found all well.

Dec. 19. Received a letter from home; very stormy; spent a most pleasant day at Cousin Hannah's; returned home to dinner.

Dec. 20. Went down town shopping in the afternoon; bought my cloak at Sterns;

Met Gen. Judson on 3rd Avenue; had lots of fun. In the evening, went with Henry to the Casino to see the "Beggar Student".

Dec. 21. Did not go out in the morning as Cousin Hat. was sick in the A. M.. Kate came over and we went to call on Miss Willard; During our absence, Mrs. Cohn and her daughter called. Received letters from Mamma and Minne; Abe came up and spent the evening.

Dec. 22. Went to the Temple in the morning; to see Geistinger in "Boccaccio" in the afternoon.

Dec. 23. Spent day with Kate; Abe came up after dinner and walked home with us; Ed was at Uncle's to supper, and spent evening. One of the coldest days of this winter.

Dec. 24. In the morning, Hattie went to her painting, and cousin H. and I went shopping. P.M. we went over to Brooklyn, and called on Nellie Barrett. 115 or 159, I think, 6th Avenue. Received box from home Saturday containing dresses and Xmas gifts from Jennie and Hattie F.

Dec. 25. Merry Christmas. Snowed very hard. Spent P.M. with Mrs. Klingenstein; went with H... to see Ada Rehan in 720-

8, in the evening. Missed callers, Miss Isidor, Messrs Halin, Isidor, and Simpson.

Dec. 26. P. M. Went to Pau line's to sewing class. Met Misses Seligman and all the girls; had a fine spread, and music.

Dec. 27. Went to Cousin Hannah's to spend a few days; Mark was home from College, and a friend of his, Mr. Kelly stayed to lunch. P.M. Went in the carriage to call on Dr. B.; thence to the dress makers; rained very hard so made no more calls. Met all the boys and Mr. S. at dinner; had to play, of course,

In the evening, six of us went to see Booth in the "Merchant of Venice" & "Katherine and Petruchio." Her is grand. Went to Bernard's restaurant; reached home at 12:40 P.M.

Dec. 28. A.M. Went through Macy's, Tiffany's, and the Cathedral on 5th AVe. Met Pauline on Broadway. P.M. Cousin Hattie and Jennie Meyer called; was sorry not to see more of Jennie, but she made a very short stay. The evening Sabbath service was beautiful; Cousin H. wore an elegant white cashmere wrapper, embroidered down the front, and all trimmed with lace; very fine supper; lasted about two hours; we then adjourned to the parlors, where we ate and talked until nearly eleven.

Dec.29. Went to 34th St. Schule in the morning. Dinner was not over until nearly three; Mr. Sondheim and Louis Blum enthal called; left S-'s about 4:30; L. B. came home with us. Had a most delightful visit at Cousin Hannahs's. In the evening, Cousin Hat. went to the Freundschaft, and Abe took us to see the "Rajah", at the Madison Square. Went to Dorlans and had oysters. Reached home after 12. Found letters from Mamma and Hattie Fulton.

Dec. 30. Wrote letters in the morning, and read. Uncle Ed. came up to dinner and stayed as usual. P.M. Addie and Julia Blumenthal called with Louis, and spent afternoon. Like them very much. In the evening, called on Miss Rosenthal, next door. Do not admire her in the least.

Dec. 31. Last day of the year. Zelle and I went shopping in the morningl P.M. Hattie and I went to the Loan Exhibition: very fine and interesting; met the Brosnans from Brooklyn. Called on Mrs.

Cohn, 269, East 61st St. Spent the evening at Mr. Jake Blumenthal's; met Lottie and Elias B. there; had a very pleasant time.

The old year with all its joys and sorrows has departed; and with the bright New Year we will turn over a new leaf and begin a fresh page.

1883, Farewell.

125

Sold or Rented.

Virgil ---$1.30.

Geometry ---1.00

Botany -- R----.75

135

Sept.18 $18.00.

10.00

136

April, 1883

11. $

8 silk balls

1 pr. steels

1 Collar

Cream

Car Fare

.75

.17.

.15.15.20

