January 1 1915

1915.

Chris, Marion & Pete went to "Snow White". Stayed at home. H.K. came up in morning but wouldn't go up town with me. Went over to meet Elizabeth, ran all way to train. Warren, Harold & Guy came in. Played games "Sheep Society", "Do you point as I point".

1916.

Sat. Harold & Christ took in theatres both P.M. & eve. Cat & I saw Marion off in P.M. Went up to Cat's house-made fudge. She came down here for supper. Telephone calls from Marion Roberts, A. [Sawires] & Pete.

1917.

New Year's day a legal holiday now. Marion left at noon. All went over to see her off. Chris went after supper. Cat made her good-bye visit. Read in eve.

1918.

Tues. Abode narrowed to two rooms, awful cold. Stayed in bed till 1:30, only warm place to be had. Rest of house like an ark. Spent eve at Kershaw's, served tea etc.

1919.

Miss [MacCaidie] was to have spent the day with us but too awful walking. Marion & Papa both home.

January 2

1915.

Sat. Took 11:35 to Boston, hurried as usual. Met Elizabeth & rest at Stearns, all lunched at Duponts. Met Jesse at Cort theatre. "Peg & my Heart" was dandy. Alaric was great. Whole seven came home with us. Warren, Guy, George came in.

1916.

Sun. Snowing still. Cat came down in A.M. called Wendell up for fun. Chris & Harold left. Washed blue sweater & did odd jobs. Had supper at Kershaw's. Cat is here & going to stay all night.

1917.

Tues. Dentist again from 10:30 to 12. Shopped all P.M. with Mama. Got blue goods for new coat. Ran on to Peter. Had to hunt all over town to match velvet for hat.

1918.

Wed. Awful mess we are in, every thing frozen, water, heat & all. Fred on the job. Trip to station to get article which didn't come. Dressed at Kershaw's for college club party. Nice time & good ice-cream. Resorted to bath room in eve.

1919.

Thu. While Mama went to her meeting, I stayed at home alone and worked on blue serge dress made from my suit. Got as intested don't I let both fires go out!

January 3

1915.

Sun. Arose at 10:30. Stayed home with Jesse & Elizabeth. All went over to 12:17 train with Chris. Took a picture on the platform. Marion, Pete & company went on 6:00 train. Went over with them.

1916.

Mon. Went to Boston with Mama, got new black week-end case. Met Cat and went to Keith's. Did odd jobs in eve. Talked long time with Cat over telephone. Papa brought Chris' mandolin with him.

1917.

Wed. Mama cut my coat & I made my two pair of pajamas brilliant pink & blue. A regular snow blizzard. Didn't go out of house. Feeling rather punk.

1918.

Thurs. Got up about 11. Conceived idea of seeing "Intolerance" took 1:29 train & had to run for it too. Movie was thrilling all right. In eve whole family transported water from Giblin's in variety of utensils.

1919.

Fri. Delicious time at dentist's. Then directly to Boston. Lunched with Pete at Simmon's, & went to Symphony, heard Heifetz. Then out to Newton Centre for dinner & the night.

January 4

1915.

Mon. Made a nut cake & fudge for trunk also sugar cookies. Mama went up town & finished my brown dress. Helen came up in P.M. and we took pictures. Trunk left at 4 in a rush.

1916.

Tues. Made cake and brownies to put in trunk. Some rush, left on 12:48 train. Said good-bye to Mrs. Giblin. Vassar special left at 2:35. Sat with Pete & Priscilla Fowler. Got to North about 10:30. Ed already here.

1917.

Thurs. Mama went to Boston before I got up. Machine lusted so I undertook to clean whole house. Flabbergasted me. Called on M. Park on way up town. She seemed much improved.

1918.

Fri. Got water turned on, & telephone fixed about noon. Living almost normally now.

1919.

Just barely got the train for Boston. Spent A.M. inspecting smelly stores in South End, lunched at Automat & saw "The Bear Leader" at Copley theatre, after which I went home.

January 5

1915.

Tues. Back again. Found Edna in bed when I arrived. Her trunk came but mine didn't. All came but Enid, H. Sloane & Helen S., wrecked. Met girl from Augusta on train. Pleasant trip. Edna has 3 boxes of candy.

1916.

Wed. Didn't take swimming lesson on account of cold. Physics quiz. Pete has the grip, has to stay in bed. Lots of people are sick. Read hours on Spencer for tomorrow, all of Bk. II.

1917.

Fri. Last call on dentist, total of eight fillings this trip. Did a thousand things in P.M. Packed part of trunk. Rained hard all P.M. Located a few Ec clippings in eve. Cut my corns.

1918.

Sat. Really getting warmer. Fred got furnace fixed. Didn't go anywhere, not even up town. Kershaw spent evening. Played vic. etc.

1919.

Sun. Slept very late as usual. Helen came up before she left. In eve. I called on Marion Parks & inspected her trousseau.

January 6

1915.

Wed. Read Round Robin letter at breakfast table. Sloane came before breakfast & H. Shakleton after. Unpacked trunk before dinner. All settled now & studying again.

1916.

Thurs. Physics lecture postponed from 4th hour to this eve. on liquid air. Very interesting. My trunk came and am nearly unpacked. Busy doing Latin for tomorrow.

1917.

Sat. Made brownies & finished packing. My new rig very striking. Papa, Mama, Chris & H.K. saw me off on Vassar special. Trip seemed very short. Train on time, card from Hollis C. Ed came after I.

1918.

Sun. Slept very late as usual. Hollis said he'd come out but he didn't. Fred finished his job this A.M. Dinner at night, because couldn't have fire before. Kershaw departed before we knew it.

1919.

Mon. Preparations for returning to Bradford. Mama went to N.B. so I was all alone all day. Mrs. Knowlton called up & asked me to meet trains tomorrow in So. Station.

19 Birthday Thoughts - by Miss R. Thomas

The hurrying years press on and I am growing old.

My steps will soon be feeble, my brain
it waxeth cold.

19 Wrinkles will line my forehead, all dark and dark with mold

I am nineteen today

II

My hairs, if there be any, will turn from 19 brown to gray.

My teeth fall slowly one by one as I go on my way.

My hands with care and toil be worn, my voice will be hay.

19 I am nineteen today.

III

Yet, with some ills, old Time brings on the dignity of age

I feel it now, and soon I will be 19 haughty, proud, and sage.

Majestic, and I'll grandly strut
as if upon a stage.

I am nineteen today.

Memoranda

19 Composed Mar. 12, 16, by Ed, Pete, John
Two little devils for friends have we,
Sneaky, forgetful, and full of glee,
Scorn invitations they give you.
No matter how hard they may urge you,

19 Hospitality they lack
In manners they are very slack,
For when they invite you to dinners
Those two little horrible sinners,
Run off forgetting the date,

19 And leave you to an awful fate.
Composed by Eliz. Sh. on occasion of invitation into EWE Club. Apr. 9, 1916
Ewee Ewee
secret society she cried he died

19 Never again in the pines of Kentucky
Far from the wail of the sea lions tail
Ewee alas Ewee.
