

Vassar
Sept. 20, 1866.

Dear Girls—

We are in prison again, and wish very much to know if you desire to fulfill that promise made concerning the correspondence. — If so, won't you please write very soon to

Your distressed roommate—
Fannie E. B.

Neta and I are in "91 c." Eliza Talcott and sister in "d." Everybody sends love, and wants you back Come to Vassar Just now. "(Any other?!)".

Yours
Fanny.

My days are gliding.

[Frances Elisabeth Brown, spec. Jan. '66–67,
To Abigail L. and Caroline E. Slade, both spec. <65–66 at Fall River, Mass.]