

Vassar College.

June 9, '67.

My darling Mother.

Thinking that perhaps you would like to hear from your daughter once more while at V.G. I have decided "to pen you a few lines." Isn't it elegant? only one more Sunday at Vassar before we go home.

The weather is so very changeable, Friday it was very warm but yesterday and today it seems more like winter than summer- Mr. Vassar invited us all out to Springside to spend yesterday afternoon on his grounds and furnished very nice refreshments we thought he was very kind, as Mary and myself had been there before we thought we could not spend the time to go again and consequently remained in room 49. Last week was remarkably gay for us, Thursday afternoon Mr. Wright came over and took four of us to ride. I believe we went about 12 miles in all and had an elegant time. Friday evening some gentlemen from Po'keepsie serenaded us which was very fine and lastly I was elected Recording Secretary of Chapter Alpha for next year (how proud you must feel of your daughter at Vassar?) I was very glad to hear in Annie's letter yesterday that (what will I call him?) Laurence was a fine looking little fellow for you know that I am very fond of good looking young gentlemen. Last night we all had the pleasure of dreaming over some wedding cake but we cannot tell as yet, what our fate will be. I threw out the name of the person whose picture I sent home in one of Annie's letters. I was Intending to write to father today but I guess I have written everything to you. Hoping to see you very soon I sign myself your loving Lillie.

June 9• 1867 - 2

(Lillie (Taylor) Gallup,

spec.'65-671