

Vassar College N.Y. Nov 22 - 87

Mr Pace: I [erased: ...y?] send you a very hastily written and imperfect sketch of some of the points of interest in Vassar College. I fear that the article is too long, but the time necessary for revision and abridgement was wanting. I give you carte blanche to make any amendments or omissions which may seem judicious.

I commend it to you tender mercies - do with it as you think best Hastily. O. L. Hatcher
