Dear Mother + Father:

Devate tonight, lab 5th + 6th, + work 7th + 8th. Had an ugly written in Ec this morning.

I planned to get ahead yesterday on this week's work, but I had to go to bed at 4:30 yesterday with a splitting old-time headache. I haven't the faintest idea [what] it came from. It is gone to-day but it was a nuisance.

Midsemester in Spanish Thursday!

Love,

Fannie
