

I just want to send you word that my complaint has entirely disappeared and I am feeling perfectly well. College is just as grand as ever if not now so. And the freshmen are char and my room is fascinating! But my trunk in which we carefully put the things I washed has not appeared yet. Isn't that a joke on us. I can't do anything down town until it comes. R.M.A.

Mrs. George B Adams
57 Edgehill Road
New Haven
Conn