Dear Papa

Here is the bill. I send it along immediately. I hope to catch the mail so wont stop to write anything. Tell Mamma the pine got here all right. I quite wanted to go down to New York today. A lot of the girls went down today to the Lessing Place Theater to see Mimma von Baruhel at the invitation of the director who lectured here last night (in German). I understood all he said. It was very nice. But I thought I had better save my pennies. Love Ruth
