

Dear Pete,

I promised to go coasting now, so I have not time to write a letter now. Now that the strain is over, I feel all in.

The history was a corker. I'll send it to you, but I want it back.

I shall go to N.Y., making the customary Saturday connections. Father will meet me + come back here. So he telegraphed yesterday.

Love,

Fannie

Mr. M. Lester Aaron,
55 Campbell Hall,
Princeton, N.J.