

Dear Mother, Pather, and Pete:

It is another slorloxiB day, but with niy daily schedule, there is not much of interest to write. The elections for the four "big associations came off exactly as I wanted them to. Clifford Sellers is President of Students, Anita Marburg, one of the big JLiniora, President of Christian Associat on, and Edith Meiser, by far the best acteesso of the college, she ¥7as (L^Aiglon-, president of Phil. OloveWatklns, our president first semester, is secretary of Students. There was great exeitement last nigit .

Miss Smith toid me today that she wrote to you. Mother. That was very nice of her.

I have to wait for the others who missed the math qui^fco make it upV Darn———•! wanted to have it off my hands.

^ The laundry came. I wonVt send any this week.

Pounders' Day is Friday a week^ It Is to be liipited to tte college communijDy.

We have some tall reading to do in French before the end of the year.

Lov^
