

Dear Mother + Father,

For some reason I forgot again to write today. That was some evening yesterday, Papa Marcus!

Miss K. tried to per-suade me this morning to take Critical Writing next year in addition to a liter-ature course and Shakespeare + 19th century poetry the following 2 yrs. as planned. That would make English my major. She said I had improved so much in writ-ing it would be too bad to discontinue it. R.S.V.P. immediately what you think of it. Information in catalogue.

Love,

Fannie
