

[28 May 1922]

Dear Mother, Father, and Pete:

Nothing to report except that I studied for exams most of the day, except for the hour that I took a walk and the other three quarters that I played tennis.

I wish I had about two days more before exams.

Love,

Fannie

Excuse the wrong side of the paper, Pete.

Sunday