

Dear Mother, Father, and Pete:

I have your Princeton pictures framed and up--they look very well "indeed".

I am very busy today--five classes and to town for my picture after the last one.

We do not have chapel Sunday night. However, I very often go to dark music, which comes at the same time.

Nothing new.

Love,

Fannie