

[Addressed to Hotel Traymore]

Dear Mother, Father, and Pete:

Took my philosophy and Renaissance make-up writtens this morning, so after I finish writing some stuff for Drama this afternoon I will be completely caught up with class work--but not with work on Semester topics.

I am feeling practically normal again--not quite as strong as usual and still have a slight cold.
Otherwise all is well.

Love,

Fannie

November 3