Dearest -

I forgot to put in the length I wanted my bloomers' belt after all - I was going to measure it and forgot to - 25 inches

Took my first lesson with Dr. Grigg's this afternoon - he says he is very much pleased with any voice-range from low F to high C. He has given me Mrs. H.A.A Beach's "Fairy Lullaby" to work on, and for lapping over.

Has asked me to buy a book of certain exercises and another song.

You didn't say at what hotel Daddy is to stay in Minneapolis - did you forget to put it in.

Cough still racking but not so frequent - that's some improvement. Had a letter from Roger today - he's had some sort of an operation - on his nose I believe same trouble that Margaret has - rather serious results: he had to leave college and come home.

No time to write more now

Muriel.
