Dearest daddykins

Joy! Who should we see this afternoon on the piazza [bout] Mr and Mrs Snow! They are going to stay with us isn't that great?

We had such a lovely drive this afternoon around the sea-shore. A nice old man drove who pointed out all the points of interest to us poor travellers. We saw a barn which sheltered the horses of officers in the war of 1812. Yesterday Mr and Mrs Charles Robbins came over to see us, they are still at the Mooreland. Mr Coffin and the Spanns + Jamesons came to take us out sailing this afternoon but sis didn't feel very well so we didn't go. Your letter was fine daddy and we were awfully glad to get it

Goodbye

Lots of love Peg.
