Dearest May Louise

The news of the new dress delights my heart, and it does sound so pretty! As to your writing a note to Polly I hardly know what to say -- but I don't believe it would do any harm. [Given] 'twould be a good plan. You are an angel May Louise to be thinking of Christmas books for me to send people. I think you're pretty fine anyway. I've just gotten your note -- I'm so glad you liked Ekie's verses, though I knew you would. The University club must be grand. How was Eloise's debut? I got such a delightful bread-and-butter letter from her t'other day.

I have to go to a class

now so this won't be but just a note. I'll have oh so much to tell you when I see you! We had some kodak pictures of our sitting room taken last night which I'm anxious for you to see as soon as they are finished up.

Oodles of love

Peg.
