

1908? En route to N.Y.

Monday-

1.37 P.M.

Dear parents!-

Dad's letter, Wm's and one from Harry arrived this A. M. All were very good. The kids are all teasing me to stay to commencement, but I don't really believe I will.

Sat. P.M. I went to the matinee, "The Witching Hour" with Mab, and a couple of Freshmen. The play was great, [s...e?], the seating also.

This writing is somewhat giggly [sp: jiggly?], but I want to mail it at the Grand Central.

Then after the play we went to Lucille's for ice cream. We were to meet Grace there but missed connections. I went to dinner with one of the freshmen and in the evening was Hall Play. Most everyone thot it not very good. It was "As you like it." Will tell more ab't it later.

Yesterday Lyman Abbott preached and it ^was lovely of course.

Last night Juliet, Grace and I had supper at Cary's. I slept with Grace in her room. This noon Laxie, Mabel & I had lunch at the inn before my departure -

And I will not endeavor to write more now.

Lovingly,

M'g't.

I could not get "Motor Boys Overland," tell Wm, but I will endeavor to get it in N.Y.
