

WILLARD L. DEAN

1841 - 1898

The Committee appointed to draw up resolutions upon the death of Mr. Dean, presented the following:

Whereas: by the death of Willard L. Dean Vassar College has lost an officer whose long and faithful service as its treasurer and kind and obliging spirit as a trustee and friend have endeared him to the officers, alumnae and students of Vassar College during the greater part of its existence; Therefore, be it resolved that this Faculty express its sense of personal loss at his death, and extend to his family its sympathy in their affliction.
