

KATE HUNTINGTON TAYLOR
(Mrs. James Monroe Taylor)
1850 - 1935

In memory of Mrs. Kate Huntington Taylor we gratefully record her valued contribution to the social life of Vassar College. The influence of her sincere dignified personality, the wisdom with which she conducted her family life, and the interesting hospitalitf which with President Taylor she dispensed from 1886 to 1914, impressively indicated her worth.

People who met Mrs. Taylor at home or in her zestful travels were refreshed by her strength and balance, her realistic attitude to life, and the savor of her good wit.

To the members of her family now saddened by her death the Faculty of Vassar College expresses its deep sympathy.

Mary MacColl
IX - 271