

15 September 1936

Dear Nathan,

I have looked through the papers and declare my approval of your suggestions and trust that you made the right choice. Sunday evening I am probably going to be coming to New York to Bucky's and shall be staying there 1–2 days. Then I hope to speak to you about all the rottenness in this big world. The only good thing therein seems to me to be that Hitler, in awareness of his power, will perpetrate enough idiocies to unite the world against G.—Wilhelm in an even more grotesque edition.

Cordial greetings, yours,

A. E.

[ALS]