

31 May 1938

Dear Nathan,

To my regret I cannot do Stephen Wise the favor, because I don't want to meddle in the party dealings here and certainly do not consider the plebiscite campaign right.

The day before yesterday, I discussed with Mr. Leidesdorf the financial management matter. He will take care of it all and distribute my riches in various banks, in case of a major bankruptcy.

Recently, a very likable Arab visited me about paving the way for a campaign for peace in Palestine. I'll tell you about that later.

Cordial greetings,

Yours,

A. Einstein.

[TLS. On embossed letterhead: "A. Einstein, 112, Mercer Street, Princeton, New Jersey, U. S. A." Handwritten correction.]