Dear Nathan,

I am writing you here briefly to prevent an important matter pertaining to my estate from being forgotten. I have 175 dollars in safekeeping for Miss Hanna Fisch, whom you know about, which are not deposited in a separate account. Provision should somehow be made so that this person will later be able to access her money. Until recently, she was in Cracow (last address: Somackiego Avenue 40/6) and I haven't heard anything from her since, of course.

Cordial regards,

Yours,

A. Einstein.
