

An address made by Thomas Jefferson (bearing his signature) while President, to the chiefs of the Seneca, Oneida and Onodagua Indians who went to Washington in 1803 regarding a disputed murder trail involving an Indian at Buffalo Creek, N.Y.