

Genius of the Mountain, one much desires you will fix a time, for pay'g a visit to the Court House and determine in what light and shadow the Friend of the Indian, shall be placed, at present it hangs on the right, and next to the Bench, wait'g your Ladyships Commands, I remain at the - "Snuggery"
P.S. for this gift, I could say with "Cowper"
-"wisdom and judgment join at once in you,
-sprightly as youth, as age, consummate too,"

For Mrs. Townsend
&c &c
by Mr. Parrish - "Mothers Pet