Dear Miss Nike:

In my letter of April 19, 1938, I forwarded to you a check $50.00. I asked you at that time to kindly arrange for payment of the equivalent to

Mrs. Willi Lebach
Esteplatz 3
Vienna III, Austria.

I now understand that Mrs. Lebach or her husband refused to accept that remittance. I wonder whether you have received any information to that effect. Should that be the case, I wish you would be kind enough to give the necessary instructions to have the amount returned to me.

I shall be grateful for anything you may be able to do in this matter.

Sincerely yours,

Otto Nathan
