

Philadelphia April 29, 1792

Sir,

I received your letter of the 28th of March, I was pleased with your improvement in writing. I have recommended you to the Secretary of War, and he will give you an appointment as a standing interpreter to the Five Nations. As soon as you receive this letter, come to Philadelphia and go to the war office for your appointment instructions.

If I am not here, call on your friend Mr. Parrish to introduce you.

Your friend,
T. Pickering

Mr. Jasper Parrish
