The records of the Class of 1889 include one volume of biographical sketches prepared for the 50th reunion, containing information on family, career, travels, and reminiscences of college years; one biography from a physician includes her reactions to studying with Carl Jung in the 1920s.

The records of the Class of 1914 include 3 scrapbooks containing photographs, clippings, programs, and captions concerning the women in the class and their subsequent lives, circa 1910-1964.

The collection contains no records for the classes of 1945-4 or 1954.
