Administrative History

Vassar College was founded in 1861 and opened its doors in 1865.

Top

Scope and Content Note

Diaries, letters, scrapbooks, photograph albums and other materials documenting student life at Vassar College.

The diaries concern life on campus, other students, classes, relationships with their professors, vacations, family news, and other subjects; some volumes have short entries on daily activities while others have longer, more reflective entries.

The letters were written by students to family, friends, and Vassar faculty, with some letters received by students from family and friends, concerning life at Vassar, their studies, social events, and family affairs.

The scrapbooks contain programs, notices, invitations, and other memorabilia compiled by students.
