

Page 1

Basingstoke [Hants]
England
William J. Bok
Nov 18 (1894)

Dear Sir,

Yours of October 20th has just reached me. I am here for the winter busy writing my reminiscences to be published in book form when completed. They are at present being published from week [missing piece of page] week in The Woman's Tribune I am also writing occasional articles for papers and Magazines What do you pay a column and on what subject would you like some letters? My daughter Mrs. Stanton Blatch with whom I am staying at present is a fine writer, and could give you some interesting letters of people this side.

Page 2

Page 3

2.

I have a son too in Paris who is a fine writer. Theodore Stanton 9. rue de Bassano, Paris, France. He has a Syndicate also managed by McClure, perhaps you and he might assist each other. I will send your letter to him and tell him who you are

yours truly
Elizabeth Cady Stanton

My direction is
Mrs. Elizabeth Cady Stanton
Basingstoke
[Hants]
England
Care of. William Henry Blatch

Page 4

[typed transcript]

Alma Lutz Collection

COPY

Basingstoke Hantz

England
Nov. 18 (1894)

William J. Bok

Dear Sir,

Yours of October 20th has just reached me. I am here for the winter busy writing my reminiscences to be published in book form when completed. They are at present being published from week to week in The Women's Tribune. I am also writing occasional articles for papers & Magazines. What do you pay a column and on what subject would you like some letters? My daughter Mrs. Stanton Blatch with whom I am staying at present is a fine writer, & could give you some interesting letters of people this side.

I have a son too in Paris who is a fine writer, Theodore Stanton, 9 rue de Bassano, Paris, France. He has a Syndicate also managed by McClure, perhaps you & he might assist each other. I will send your letter to him & tell him who you are.

Yours truly

Elizabeth Cady Stanton

My direction is
Mrs. Elizabeth Cady Stanton
Basingstoke
Hants
England
Care of William Henry Blatch