

Page 1

26. West 61st
N.Y. May 7 1894

Dear Mrs. Livermore

Many thanks for your kind invitation. I am very sorry that Miss Blatch cannot accept as I am very proud of her and should like to have all our Boston friends see and hear her, but she sails in on Wednesday. As to myself the word "go" has lost all charm for me. I have arrived at that time of life when a good novel a rocking chair, my own bed and other personal comforts in an apartment ... with no stairs to climb are all so necessary to my

Page 2

Page 3

Happiness that I cannot be tempted to new fields of labor, except those my pen can reach. You see the great uprising in this state, Mrs. Blatch has spoken twice a day ever since she landed. The very day she landed she went straight from the ship to a parlor meeting to fill one of my engagements

Page 4

You should be here to help us Could you give July August September and October or any part of these months, and make one grand campaign through all the counties of this state? I hope your festival will a grand sears as it always is. With kind regards for Mr. Livermore and yourself yours as ever

Page 5

Elizabeth Cady Stanton

Page 6

26. West 51st
N.Y. May 7 (1894)

Dear Mrs. Livermore

Many thanks for your kind invitation. I am very sorry that Miss Blatch cannot accept as I am very proud of her & should like to have all our Boston friends see & hear her. B

But she sails in on Wednesday. As to myself the word "go" has lost all charm for me. I have arrived at that time of life when a good novel a rocking chair, my own bed and other personal comforts in an apartment house with no stairs to climb are all so necessary to my happiness that I cannot be tempted to new fields of labor, except those my pen can reach. You see the great uprising in this state, Mrs. Blatch has spoken twice a day ever since she landed. The very day she landed she went straight from the ship to a parlor meeting to fill one of my engagements. You should be here to help us. Could you give July August September & October or any part of these months & make one grand campaign through all the counties of this state?

I hope your festival will a grand success as it always is. With kind regards for Mr. Livermore and yourself

Yours as ever

Elizabeth Cady Stanton
