

Page 1

1870's

12th

Dear Olive,

When I entered Detroit this morning, the first thing that caught my eye was your name good said I, as tonight is free I will stay and hear the "Bright nite" of humanity, but lo! on inquiry I found you came the 18th when I am engaged and so I shall not hear or see you But I write a line to

Page 2

to say that my interest and sympathy are with you wherever you go

Heard Anna's "Men's rights" in N.Y, the night I left. I believe she comes west soon. Susan told me how much she enjoyed meeting you at Rochester, and the pleasant impression made by your speech.

Page 3

I hope we may met in our wanderings with much love

Your friend sincerely
Elizabeth Cady Stanton

Page 4

[blank page]

Page 5

[typed transcript]

COPY

12th 1870's

Dear Olive,

When I entered Detroit this morning, the first thing that caught my eye was your name good said I, as tonight is free I will stay & hear the "Bright nite" of humanity, but lo! on inquiry I found you came the 18th when I am engaged & so I shall not hear or see you But I write a line to say that my interest & sympathy are with you wherever you go

Heard Anna's "Men's rights" in N.Y, the night I left. I Believe she comes next here. Susan told me how much she enjoyed meeting you at Rochester, & the pleasant impression made by your speech.

I hope we may met in our wanderings with much love
Your friend sincerely
Elizabeth Cady Stanton