Dear sir

Just received yours of the 10th. As I have been on the wing since returning from England in March, your former letter may have been easily lost. I will send an answer to your question

"Would women vote"? this week.

You did not say how many words each one could have. Yes I will send you articles during the winter, on the question of the hour that seem uppermost. Lend me some articles of the kind you find most popular that I may judge.

Truly yours
